

stile antico

early music vocal ensemble

"It's never a good idea to miss a concert from this British vocal ensemble: there are no finer singers of early music."

NEW YORK TIMES

Stile Antico is firmly established as one of the world's most accomplished and innovative vocal ensembles. Working without a conductor, its twelve members have thrilled audiences on four continents with their fresh and vibrant performances of Renaissance polyphony.

Stile Antico has appeared at the Wigmore Hall, Amsterdam Concertgebouw, and Leipzig Gewandhaus, and regularly features at such prestigious festivals as the BBC Proms and the Antwerp, Utrecht and York Early Music Festivals. The group tours regularly to the US and Canada, and has performed in Mexico, Colombia and South Korea.

Stile Antico's members rehearse and perform as chamber musicians, each contributing artistically to the musical results. In addition to its core repertoire, the group has premiered works by John McCabe, Huw Watkins, and Nico Muhly, and appeared with such diverse collaborators as Fretwork, the Folger Consort, Marino Formenti, B'Rock, and Sting.
