Exploration, insight and imagination are vital ingredients in Melvyn Tan's blend of artistic attributes. He established his international reputation in the 1980s with pioneering performances on fortepiano and continues to cast fresh light on music conceived for the piano's early and modern forms.

Melvyn's work as recitalist, chamber musician and concerto soloist has been heard at many of the world's leading concert halls, from the Amsterdam Concertgebouw, Vienna Konzerthaus, AMUZ in Belgium, London's Wigmore Hall and Royal Festival Hall, New York's Lincoln Center, and at major festivals including Salzburg, Edinburgh, La Roque d'Anthéron as well as Bath's Mozartfest, City of London festival and Hatfield House Chamber Music Festival.

As a concerto soloist Melvyn has performed with prestigious ensembles such as the London Philharmonic Orchestra, Academy of St Martin's in the Fields, Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra, Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, Stuttgart Radio Symphony Orchestra, Salzburg's Camerata and Mozarteum Orchestras, Bruckner Orchestra Linz, Melbourne Symphony, Singapore Symphony Orchestra, London Chamber Orchestra, and Australian Chamber Orchestra.

Melvyn has connected with audiences across China and Southeast Asia, introducing many to their first experience of fortepiano and attracting young people to attend recitals on early and modern pianos. Others have discovered his work through his large discography, complete with ground-breaking fortepiano recordings of concertos by Mozart, Beethoven and Schubert's Impromptus for EMI Classics, and releases on the Archiv, Deux-Elles, Harmonia Mundi, NMC and Virgin Classics labels. His latest recording, 'Miroirs' (Onyx Classics 2019) embraces three centuries of keyboard style and traces some of the inspirations for Ravel's ground-breaking works for piano, hailed by The Times as a "fascinating disc". On his CD of Beethoven, Czerny and Liszt – Master and Pupil (Onyx Classics 2016), The Sunday Times commented that "The progression is from marvelousness to absolute delectation. His playing is always exquisite, but much more than that."

Recent appearances include performances with MDR Leipzig Radio Symphony Orchestra and Dennis Russell Davies, Orchestra Wiener Akademie in Vienna, a Wigmore Hall recital and BBC In Tune broadcast with cellist Guy Johnston, Hatfield House Chamber Music Festival, Oundle International Festival, Bath Philharmonia and AMUZ. His 2022/23 highlights include, concerts with Cape Town Philharmonic Orchestra, Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 21 with Deutsche Philharmonie Merck, re:SOUND Collective in Singapore and Mozart's Piano Concerto No 17 with Filharmonie Brno and Dennis Russell Davies.

Melvyn was privileged to perform as part of the Wigmore Hall and Radio 3 special series of concerts, livestreamed during the COVID-19 pandemic with Guy Johnston. With curator Paul Boucher, he has also continued his role in devising Music and Word at Charleston, a combination of music and readings in the unique setting of the East Sussex Farmhouse made famous by artists Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant.

In addition to his concert and recording activities, Melvyn Tan gives masterclasses at the Villa Medici-Giulini in Italy, at the Yong Siew Toh and Aureus Conservatories of Singapore and Kent International Piano Course. He is a regular adjudicator, most recently sitting on the panel for ROSL Keyboard Competition and ROSL's 70th Annual Music Competition Gold Medal Final. Melvyn is a keen and long-standing supporter of Buskaid, the outstanding South African music project in a Soweto township, listed by Gramophone Magazine as one of the world's ten most inspiring orchestras.
